APPEAL

There is a family in Clevedon who have lost everything they own in a fire, a lady at Comet where I work is collecting various things to help the family back on their feet.

There are 3 girls aged 6,7 & 10 and a 2 year old also a lad of 13. Plus mum.

She is collecting toys, books, clothes, bedding any bits of furniture, cooking things in fact anything at all so if anyone has anything they can donate please ring me on 01934 838357 or pop into Ray or Heather.

Thanks very much.

Well done indeed to the entire Fenwick family and their helpers, such a lot of hard work went in to the coffee morning but what a reward with so much money being raised and enjoyable morning to boot.

Don't forget - Pick up litter, tidy verges - We are being judged!!!

July 25th St. James (the Greater)

This saint is known as St. James the greater to distinguish him from James the Less, 'brother' of the Lord, whose feast is on 1st May.

St. James was, like St. John the Evangelist, a son of Zebedee and a fisherman.

James and John were named Boanerges, meaning 'sons of thunder' by Jesus when they wanted the fire of heaven to descend on a village, which had refused to receive them.

St. James was the first apostle to die for Christ. While visiting Jerusalem with Peter to celebrate Easter in about 42, James was arrested and executed by Herod Agrippa.

Large quantities of oysters used to be eaten on St. James' day. The children would make grottos out of the shells, illuminate them at night with rush lights and ask passers-by for gifts or money.

"He who eats oysters on St. James' Day will not want for money during the year"

"Till St. James' Day is past and gone, there may be hops, or there may be none".

Hartley Staples.

PARISH COUNCIL NOTES

Parish Councillors were delighted with the clean-up day on 3rd June. It was a beautiful day and thanks to North Somerset the verges were newly mown so that a great deal of rubbish was collected. We are all very grateful to Jenny and Simon for the delicious butties that were consumed afterwards.

Judging for the Best Kept Village Competition started on 15th June.

We were not so pleased with the people who came to resurface the road. We were very glad to get it done, but would have welcomed a warning so that animals could have been moved to more convenient fields. A sharp note has gone to North Somerset.

Following concern from parishioners, the Parish Council has written to Liam Fox about the revaluation of property for Council Tax. His reply indicates that he is well aware of the situation and will be trying to make sure that the valuers do not have the right to enter property.

Some more land on the Kenn Road has been allocated for business purposes. Councillors will be attending meetings to hear what is planned.

The next Meeting is on Monday 7th August, 7.30 pm at Kenn Village Hall, so come along and hear the results.

Ann Holtham,
Clerk to the Council

Annabelle's Beauty Acknowledged

Following Carrie and Terry's wedding, Mike and Liz Bell took their steamboat Annabelle for a trip to the Lake District.

On the way home they stopped off at The Thames Boat Show held at Beale Park, Pangbourne, near Reading.

Annabelle, which was lovingly built at Greenacres in Kenn by Mike was awarded the Cup for The Best Boat in the Show.

Presenting the award to Mike the judge said that 'she was the boat he most wanted to take home.'

Annabelle was at Chaseside on Bank Holiday Sunday last year and this year she will be on display on Clevedon Beach as part of the 'Brunel 200' Celebrations on Saturday 8th July. The 'Brunel 200' Celebrations will include old cars and lots of entertainment in Clevedon – See the Clevedon Mercury for details.

Our Flag

Our flag was flown on the following occasions:

At half-mast to mark the funeral of Kim Pike on the 9th June,

At half-mast to mark the passing of The Revd. Mary Welsh and of Kathleen Cawston.

In Celebration of

The Queen's birthday

25th June Baptism of Romilly Georgina Wilkins

27th June. Pip Jenkins 18th Birthday

We also flew the Cross of St George for all England's World Cup Games!

Please remember that if you want the flag flown for any of your special occasions to phone Robin or Marianna on 01275 340323.

VILLAGE CLEAN UP

I would like to thank, on behalf of the Parish Council, all those who turned up to give Kenn its annual Spring Clean.

It was a bit of a surprise that the council picked that day to tar and grit Kenn Street and the Church lay-by, but together with the clean up it made Kenn as neat as a new pin.

We managed to pick up a substantial load of rubbish including a few items that are best not described.

On the plus side there was less rubbish than last year but still far too much.

Thanks must go particularly to John Haydon for the use of his lorry and to Jenny and Simon who provided the workers with excellent bacon and sausage sarnies!

Please don't forget to pick up any pieces of litter you see, as the Judges for the Best Kept Village competition will be round sometime after 15/06/06

KENN COFFEE MORNING IN AID OF BREAST CANCER RESEARCH

On Saturday 17th June, the Fenwick and Smith families hosted the Kenn village monthly coffee morning at the village hall.

The proceeds from the event are to be donated to the Aviva Weekend for Breakthrough Breast Cancer and the Sun Walk the Walk half marathon.

Emma Brooks (nee Fenwick) is taking part in the Aviva Weekend, which is a 60km walk around London over two days in September.

Victoria Tucker (nee Smith) is taking part in the half marathon Sun Walk in Bristol in July.

Friday was spent setting up the hall with gift stalls, bric-a-brac, books and various games for the children.

Meanwhile, Jean and other friends and villagers spent their day in their kitchens baking a delicious selection of cakes.

A good weather forecast was promised and sure enough we had a perfect summer day, which allowed friends and neighbours to enjoy their coffee and cake in the sunshine.

From the kick-off at 10 o'clock, there was a constant stream of visitors searching for hidden treasures on the bric-a-brac stall, naming the dolly, guessing the number of sweets in the jar, purchasing gifts and trying their luck at guessing the cup size of the busty boob cake!!

A really wonderful selection of raffle prizes had been donated and demand for tickets was so great that Allison, Emma and Victoria were kept busy the whole morning selling them.

Robert Down, our resident photographer, auctioned two of his photographs, one of which was Ray Naish's gateway to his orchard. Unbeknown to each other, Emma and her mum were bidding against each other, with Emma coming out the eventual winner. The other picture of Poets Walk in Clevedon was snapped up by Juliet Stowell.

Both families would like to sincerely thank all those who supported the event. It was lovely to see so many friends and neighbours from the village and also many people from further afield, including a large contingent from Living Waters Church in Clevedon, the church that Rebecca and her family attend.

KENN NEWS & VIEWS

We would also like to thank all those who were unable to attend the event but have sponsored or given donations.

Special thanks also go to Jan, Colin, Caroline, John, Troy and Julian for their invaluable help in the kitchen.

Money is still coming in, but at the last count we know for sure that we have raised one thousand, one hundred pounds! Wow!! Thank you.

p.s. from Rebecca

I would like to add a personal thank you to everyone who supported this event and special thanks to everyone for their prayers, words of encouragement and support of our family in recent months.

Most of you will know that I was diagnosed with breast cancer in December and that I am currently having a course of chemotherapy. This will finish at the end of July and I will begin the next phase of my treatment in about September.

I know that God is faithful through this time and will bring my family and me through it in absolute victory. I am very aware of God's peace - so different from any other.

It is my peace says Jesus to his disciples and I give it to you ... a peace which surpasses all understanding.

With my love and prayers for you and your families.

Rebecca

Bird News I

Bird of the month for Kenn was undoubtedly the Red Kite seen by Hartley Staples soaring over the village on the 8th.

This sighting is particularly interesting as there had been a major movement of Red Kites in the last 2-3 weeks. This involved 12 birds in Cornwall, some in Devon, a couple in Somerset and a few in Gloucestershire.

My friend also saw two Red Kites on Bardsey Island in North Wales, a first for the island. My best was one on moors near Wrexham whilst we were on holiday – quite a way from their main range in Wales.

We will have to wait and see if all this migration (one of the Bardsey birds originated from the released birds in Northamptonshire) leads to more widespread breeding next year.

There were at least 8 Hobbies at Shapwick Heath National Nature Reserve mid-month, but I have not seen any locally yet this year. Any sightings or reports will be gratefully received.

A walk along the sea wall to the Yeo estuary produced several Skylarks in full song as well as displaying

KENN NEWS & VIEWS

Lapwings and Redshank. There was at least one juvenile Lapwing and a young Oystercatcher, but I cannot be sure that they were bred in the area. There was also a flock of Dunlin in beautiful summer plumage, a few Curlews and a couple of Turnstones.

Finally, our local Song Thrush is singing with renewed vigour and persistence – no doubt his mate is hatching a second brood of chicks.

Trevor Riddle 01934 835208

Bird News II

Since the beginning of June, Song Thrushes all around this area have been singing their hearts out. Several people have commented about it, I think this is quite unusual behaviour.

As it is now mid-summer, many birds at this time go quiet and start the annual moult, including Song Thrushes, perhaps this year some birds are sitting on second broods of eggs and the ones singing are the cock birds protecting their feeding areas.

Around the end of May young birds of all sorts could be heard as they fledged and left their nests, the good thing is the weather was dry and warm, making the survival rate likely to be high.

House Martins arrived and started nest building around Stonehouse Farm very late this year, I wonder what held them up!

People who have been watching “Bird Watch” with Bill Oddie on TV will have noticed that he commented how scarce House Sparrows are in London. He had to go to London Zoo to film some. That is certainly not the case around here, a large number are around our bungalow in Kenn Street, daily waiting to be fed and are very noisy from first thing in the morning until twilight. They nest all around the houses and buildings here.

Jeff reports a Canada Goose with seven goslings, also a Swan with six cygnets that were hatched in a nest on a field in the Moors. He has also seen a brood of nine young Long Tailed Tits in the Tickenham area.

Margaret's Mutterings

Proud Mum Margaret - is delighted to report that Quinton who lives with his family in Maidenhead did the London to Brighton Cycle Ride on Sunday 18th June - not only did he cycle there, he promptly cycled back to Maidenhead - Well Done Q.!

Not only did he have the satisfaction of covering some 122 miles in the saddle, but he also raised quite a goodly sum for the British Heart Foundation.

Kenn Fundraising,

May I add my congratulations to Jean and Rachel and their families on the amazing Coffee Morning - not only a wonderful village event but a lot of money for an excellent cause.

Kenn Village Hall

John Hayden who is arranging the planning for the new porch is wading through regulations, these seem to be erected on a daily basis - however, I am confident he will win through.

Kim Pike

The very many people who knew her were very saddened to hear of Kim's untimely death recently aged only 48. Kim came to live at "Fieldings Farm", Kenn Moor Road ten years ago. She soon got involved with building up the farm and the dairy herd with Steve. Around that time she was often seen at Winford Market taking an interest in the values of the animals being sold there.

KENN NEWS & VIEWS

Kim's day job was being a librarian at the Comprehensive School in East Clevedon. She was a very popular person and had a huge number of friends and acquaintances in Clevedon.

During her life here, she made many friends amongst the farming community. She was very interested in young people, especially members of the Young Farmers' Club. She was a very friendly and out-going person; her death is a great loss to many people around this area.

Kim's funeral drew one of the three largest congregations ever to have been recorded in the history of Kenn Church, approaching 300 people of all ages were present such was her popularity. The church was packed and there were more than 150 people seated and standing in the churchyard.

Amongst this huge congregation were very many farming families from all around this area of North Somerset. There were large numbers of members of the Young Farmers' Club present, also a large number of Kenn people.

Also present were a huge number of Kim's school colleagues and former school pupils. I have seldom seen so many young people at a funeral. Kim's coffin was borne into the church by her two sons, three step-sons and one step-daughter.

A cremation service was later held at Weston Crematorium which I am told was also packed with people. This was followed by a reception in Kenn Village Hall where there was also very large numbers of people present.

Heartfelt sympathy is extended to Steve her husband, her two sons, Kim's mother and father, her four step-children and members of the family.

The services were conducted by Prebendary John Andrews and the organist at the church was Mrs. Mary Holmes.

Reproduced from Clevedon Community School's Newsletter – 9th June 2006

It is with deep sadness that I have to inform our school community that one of our members of staff passed away over the half term holiday. Mrs Kim Pike (Leppard) had been a member of staff at Clevedon Community School since 1993.

She had undertaken many roles but worked mainly in the School Library. Unfortunately, she had been suffering with severe illness for some time and was unable to recover from this.

Kim was a truly dedicated member of the school with both of her sons attending Clevedon School. She was fully committed to helping, encouraging and supporting children to help them with different aspects of their schooling. This might have been help with homework or a project by finding the relevant resources or spending time talking with them about problems to help find solutions.

Kim never complained about giving children time and always wanted to give them the best possible help and advice. Kim knew all the children and over the years the numbers grew but she always remembered them and their particular interest. Many of them she would have known since they started Infant School or from clubs in the local community.

KENN NEWS & VIEWS

I know these students would have welcomed her interest in the work they were doing and although many of them have left the school now, they will remember Kim with fondness and appreciation.

Kim was well respected and liked by all the staff. She got on really well with everyone and again had time for people.

She would bring stories to cheer people up or just listen and support people in any way she could. She was fully involved in the life of the school and participated in many events and activities.

Kim contributed hugely to the local community and many parents and students will have enjoyed her company either at the Junior School Cub group or at other events in the community.

Kim was always someone who was prepared to roll her sleeves up and get on with the organising – many times making a start whilst others were still thinking about the problem! As a result, many events actually happened because of Kim's hard work and determination.

Many staff also knew of her love of animals and in particular her Golden Retriever dogs. I know she had a huge variety of different animals and often staff would visit her to experience her love of animals and commitment to looking after them.

The whole school is thinking of Kim's family at the present time and we offer sincere condolences to them.

Members of staff will be attending the funeral today and the school will be making a donation to 'Pancreatic Cancer UK' Research Foundation. If you wish to contribute to this, please forward your donation to Mr. D Bishop (School Business Manager) via the School Office.

At the moment the Library area is undergoing a complete refurbishment. We will be opening the new Library/Study Centre in September. The school intends to have a memorial of some kind in the Library dedicated to Kim.

Kim will be deeply missed by everyone at Clevedon Community School. I know staff and students, current and past, will all feel deep sorrow at this time.

The Reverend Mary Elizabeth Welsh

Her very many friends and fellow parishioners in Yatton Moor were very shocked and saddened to hear of Mary's sudden death at her home in Yatton recently aged 84.

Mary came to Yatton to live twenty years ago. She was at that time a Deacon in the Church of England. This was during the Revd. John Ruffle's ministry. She immediately got down to work helping run the three churches in the villages that were Yatton Moor at that time, having just retired from a vocation in education.

KENN NEWS & VIEWS

When the ordination of women into the Church of England was made possible, Mary was already past the age when that was normally allowed. However the Parochial Church Council of Yatton Moor was so impressed with her great ability that they contacted the Bishop of Bath and Wells and asked him to consider her situation. (She had already been a Deacon for twenty-six years). He readily agreed to offer her ordination and Mary was ordained at Wells Cathedral soon afterwards.

Mary's contribution to the life of the church here in Yatton Moor has been tremendous, her great intellect and wisdom and religious knowledge has greatly impressed clergy and people alike.

If there were great decisions to be made requiring much skill, Mary was always asked to undertake explaining these things. This she could do in language that everyone could understand, as were the sermons she preached week by week.

Mary's involvement with Kenn started immediately after she arrived in Yatton. She was very popular with the people here, many of whom she regarded as personal friends.

Over the years she has taken very many services at our church, we were privileged that the last Evensong that Mary took part in was at Kenn Church when she preached and led the prayers on Rogation Sunday in mid-May. Part of this service was held outside in the churchyard. She was very pleased to be asked to take part at this service. She said that the churchyard here was almost in a field. She was also pleased that the Mackay's sheep could be heard calling from this field as she led the prayers about the countryside and the growing crops.

Mary has been a regular guest at Kenn's senior resident's party held at Christmas time for many years, where she enjoyed meeting friends old and new and taking part.

Mary had never married and had very few relatives. She always said that the people in Yatton Moor were her family.

A service of Communion in Thanksgiving for Mary's life was held at Yatton Church on Saturday 17th June, there were 200 people present.

Mary had left instructions on how this service should take place down to the finest detail. She especially chose a Saturday so that as many people as possible could take part.

The Reverend Avril Gaunt had been asked to conduct this service also a cremation service. After cremation, Mary's ashes were interred at Kingston Seymour Churchyard at her request.

Kathleen Cawston

Kathleen Cawston was a faithful member of the congregation of St. John's Kenn especially over the last ten or so years. After retiring from the Ministry of Defence, Kathleen moved to Yatton in 1982. Among her activities as a member of St. Mary's Congregation, she was Chairman of the Restoration Committee for 5 years.

KENN NEWS & VIEWS

Kathleen certainly knew her own mind, and she was not afraid to voice her opinion, whether about happenings in Yatton Moor, new liturgy, or world news in general. Always smartly turned out, Kathleen continued to drive to church, often giving other folk a lift, until ill-health forced her to sensibly, but sadly, give up her car. She continued to join us in Kenn whenever she could, thanks to friends who would bring her to Holy Communion or Evensong.

Always generous to Kenn, Kathleen was particularly supportive of the 'New Room and Loooom' project.

Her most visible activity being that of issuing everyone she could catch with a tube of Smarties, and asking them to return the tube full of change.

This raised several hundred pounds, and provided a welcome boost to morale at a time when the project was getting off to a slow start.

Kathleen always enjoyed a chat after the service, and sent greetings to us from Somerset House, where she was convalescing after a spell in hospital. We were shocked and saddened to hear of her death after a fall. She will be missed.
